ORDER

RONNIE ABRAMS, United States District Judge:

After the close of business on Friday, June 5, 2020, Plaintiff William Richard Hamilton, proceeding pro se, filed this action, challenging New York City's implementation of a citywide curfew. On June 6, the Court issued an order providing for service of his papers, as well as scheduling a conference for Monday, June 8. Dkt. 7. Later that day, Plaintiff e-mailed Chambers seeking to voluntarily dismiss the case. In light of Plaintiff's request to voluntarily dismiss the case, together with Mayor DeBlasio's announcement this morning that the citywide curfew has been lifted "effective immediately," the action is dismissed. Accordingly, tomorrow's conference is adjourned.

SO ORDERED.
